Coming Attractions: Winter on Kiawah

For more information or to make reservations for events at the Sandcastle, please contact the Sandcastle Community Center at sandcastle@kica.us or at 843-768-3875.

Kiawah Island Garden Club

The Garden Club's Feb. 13 meeting will be presented by Hamby's of Charleston and center around a Valentine's Day theme. Hamby's, a family owned and operated business since 1979, has grown to one of the most popular caterers in Charleston. The program will feature table decorating ideas followed by lunch tastings. Members will receive more information via email prior to the meeting.

The March 12 program will illustrate Making Your Porches Beautiful. Watch the porch of your dreams created with magnificent plants and beautiful porch furniture.

Kiawah Presents: Our World

Our World is a complimentary educational lecture series that provides island residents with presentations by local experts on a wide variety of subjects. A light selection of wine and cheese will be provided and members are encouraged to interact with speakers following their discussions. Presentations occur on Thursdays at 3 p.m., and reservations are due the Monday prior to each presentation. The upcoming schedule is as follows:

- Feb. 2 - Dr. Mary Jane Roberts, member and former deputy director of the council for international exchange of scholars, will present The Sun Also Rises: Exploring Hemingway and his Groundbreaking Novel.
- Feb. 9 - Dr. William Woolsey, Citadel business professor, will present The Federal Reserve Effect and Future Actions.
- Feb. 23 - Dr. Kurt Broughan, Citadel history professor, will present Medieval Medicine.
- March 1 - Dr. Chuck Bensonhaver and Dr. Jonathan Davidson will present Post Traumatic Stress Disorder.
- March 8 - Dr. Patrick Briggs, Citadel physics professor, will present Evidence for the History of the Solar System.
- March 22 - Mary Whyte; Lowcountry watercolor artist, teacher, and author whose figurative paintings have earned national recognition; will present Portraits of the South.
- April 12 - Beth Balkite, genetic counselor and genetics education advisor for GlaxoSmith-Kline, Inc., will present See the Future... Look to the Future.
- April 26 - Dr. Erastus Corning, SUNY professor emeritus, will present Russia Today.
- May 3 - George Nethercutt, former Washington State congressman and chairman of the Nethercutt Foundation, will present In Tune with America: Our History in Song.

Lowcountry Artists and Artisans Showcase

April 6 (4 - 8 p.m.) and 7 (10 a.m. - 4 p.m.)

A Lowcountry spring wouldn't be complete without Kiawah's Artist and Artisans Showcase! This event provides the perfect opportunity to purchase Easter basket items like children's clothing and delicious chocolate creations. Or, for your personal Easter basket, browse displays of jewelry and home-enhancing items such as framed photography, beaded serving utensils and much more. Additionally, Kiawah's talented fine artists will display their gallery-quality work for viewing and purchase. No matter what medium or style you prefer, you will likely find it at this event!

If you are a fine artist, artisan, or photographer and wish to participate in the spring show, please contact Jessica Richardson at jessica.richardson@kica.us to obtain a participation form including event and fee information. All displayed items must be predominantly handmade and some items may be limited for variety. Forms and payment must be submitted no later than March 16.

Celebrate Kiawah

April 14, from 5 - 8 p.m.

This year, Celebrate Kiawah is saying good-bye to the March breeze and springing forward to April! Members are invited to shag on down to this springtime soiree, which will combine outdoor music, mingling and munchies at the Sandcastle. Take a glass of wine down to the beach to watch the gorgeous Kiawah sunset or sway along to the rhythm of the poolside band. Drinks and light hors d'oeuvres will be provided and while members have complimentary access, guest fees will apply. Reservations are due by April 2 and further details will be shared as they become available.

Kiawah Island Motoring Retreat

April 21 from 1:30 - 4:30 p.m.

Imagine seeing over 100 pristine collectible automobiles right in your own backyard! This spring, antique, exotic and special interest cars will be awaiting you at this complimentary event, held at Night Heron Park. Friends, family, and pets are all welcome to attend this showcase, which is open to the public and provides the perfect mix of beauty, innovation, and history. For further information or to submit your vehicle for consideration, visit www.kica.us/motoringretreat or "Like" us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/motoringretreat.
